

Eighth Grade Program - Goals and Objectives

The eighth-grade curriculum includes a focus on the New Testament and current issues in religion class. Students study Algebra I and are prepared to take Geometry when they enter high school. They learn life science in the science program. The social studies curriculum focuses on American history. Students advance in their grammar and composition skills in English class, and study and discuss the great works of Western literature from a Christian world view.