

Seventh Grade Program - Goals and Objectives

Seventh-grade students at Immanuel Lutheran study the Old Testament and church history in religion class. Pre-Algebra is the math focus, while the science curriculum focuses on physical science. World geography is emphasized in social studies. The English curriculum advances students' knowledge of grammar and composition. We study and discuss the great works of Western literature from a Christian world view.